Wilderness

Clinging to a densely forested slope with picture perfect vistas of sea, lagoon and mountain, lies The Boardwalk Lodge – a luxurious bed and breakfast and self-catering resort in Wilderness. Located in the heart of the famed Garden Route, the lodge's idyllic position offers the perfect spot from which to embark on an adventurous getaway or simply relax and soak-up the region's tranquility from the luxury of your private deck.

Set just above the sleepy town of Wilderness in the coolness of the forest, The Boardwalk Lodge oozes tranquillity and beauty leaving guests feeling restored after stressful city-life while all the benefits of city living are a mere stones throw away. This unusual combination of a town dominated by untouched nature provides activities to suit just about every holidaymaker. For the more adventurous guest, The Boardwalk Lodge is an ideal base from which to explore the region's abundant hiking and mountain bike trails, exhilarating water sports, paragliding and abseiling while those who prefer a slower pace can revel in the vast bird and wildlife, beaches, cool forests, fishing and canoeing. Days spent within the borders of the lodge are absolute gems in themselves. Cool-off in the lodge's crystal blue swimming pool, spend an afternoon searching for of the legendary 'Loerie' from the comfort of your private deck or cosy-up in front of satellite television for an evening of intimate entertainment.
